Qualifications of Voters

The qualification of electors can not be simply stated, but this paragraph gives the general rule which may be applied subject to the definitions set out in the following paragraphs. The general rule is that every person in Canada, male or female, is qualified to vote and should be included in the list of voters for the polling division in which he or she resides if he or she (a) is a British subject, and (b) is twenty-one years of age, and (c) has ordinarily resided in Canada for the year immediately preceding the date of the issue of the writ of the election, and (d) has ordinarily resided in the electoral district for the two months immediately preceding that date, and (e) is not expressly denied the right to vote.

Who are British Subjects

There are a number of ways in which a person may become a British subject in Canada. If a person is found to fall within any one of the classes defined below, it is not necessary to consider whether he falls within any other. Thus, every one has become a British subject in Canada who—

- was born in one of His Majesty's dominions or on a British ship, no matter what was the nationality of his parents, or
- was born elsewhere of a father who at the time of the child's birth was a British subject by birth, or by naturalization under any of the Imperial Naturalization Acts, or
- has been personally granted a certificate of naturalization under any statute of Canada or under the Imperial Naturalization Act, in any colony of His Majesty's dominions, or
- has had his name included in a certificate of naturalization granted to a parent under the Imperial Naturalization Act in Canada or in any other of His Majesty's dominions, or
- is the wife or unmarried widow of a natural born British subject or of a British subject naturalized under any statute of Canada or under the Imperial Naturalization Act in any other of His Majesty's dominions, or
- is the child of a person naturalized in Canada otherwise than under the Imperial Naturalization Act and was at or after the time his parent was naturalized and before he or she became twenty-one years of age, resident in Canada with the naturalized parent, and every person who has become a British subject in Canada continues to be so unless his British nationality has been surrendered by him becoming a naturalized citizen of some other country, or unless the certificate of naturalization under which he became naturalized has been cancelled, or unless, if a woman, she has married a man who is not a British subject.

Age

No person is entitled to be registered as a voter until he has actually attained the age of twenty-one years. Young persons whose twenty-first birthday occurs after the ninth day before polling day, and on or before polling day, should be advised that they may on polling day have their names added to the list and vote upon being sworn for under section 63.

The Way to Save

It is the systematic regularity with which you make small deposits, rather than the occasional banking of a considerable amount, that steadily builds up a substantial financial backing.

Get the habit of definitely depositing. Three dollars saved every week, with interest at 3% compounded semi-annually, in five years will amount to $841.02.

The Federal Elections

It is a commonplace in all election campaigns for speakers to declare that that particular election contest is the most vitally important one ever held in the history of this country. To some extent, perhaps, such a statement is correct, because, as time passes and a country grows in population and wealth, coupled with the onward march of education, science and invention, national issues and problems become greater and more complex, and naturally more are at stake in reaching a right or wrong decision than was the case in years past when we lived in other and less strenuous times.

In one respect at least such a declaration this year has a weight and meaning that ordinarily does not attach to it. Usually the people of Canada are given an opportunity of passing judgment upon the men who administer their domestic affairs, and recording their verdict on domestic questions, every four or five years. It is, however, ten years since the people of this Dominion had an opportunity to make their wishes known in regard to policies having a direct bearing on questions of domestic concern.

In the last general election in Canada domestic questions were not up for consideration, and they played but a small part with the electors in the marking of the ballots. The issue in 1917 was a war issue. It occupied the minds and hearts of the people to the exclusion of everything else. It dominated old party lines and broke party allegiances extending over generations. Tariffs, financial administration, domestic problems of all kinds, were thrown, temporarily at least, into the discard. The issue in the minds of the people, practically to the exclusion of everything else, was whether the Military Service Act should stand or fall.

Thousands of Conservatives who in 1917 voted for Liberals and Liberal-Unionists, and thousands of Liberals who voted for Conservatives and Conservative-Unionists, and in so doing sunk all party views, confidently expected that, as soon as the war was over, they would be given an early opportunity to express their views on purely domestic questions. Three years have passed since the signing of the Armistice, and the long waited opportunity has now come. For the first time since the Keopre election of 1911, the people of Canada will, on December 6th next, declare their will in regard to matters of policy and administration affecting purely domestic affairs. No question of war, or Empire, or foreign policy is involved in the present contest. The issue can be decided with an eye and mind single to the individual voters conception of what is best for Canada in a purely domestic sense.

During the decade that has elapsed many things have transpired which cannot have failed to broaden the vision of the people of Canada. The war itself, and the after-effects of that great struggle, have left an indelible mark. In 1911 men only enjoyed the right of the franchise, on December 6th women will go to the polls and cast their ballots on a basis of full equality in citizenship with men. Questions vitally affecting the material welfare of the Dominion are to be decided, but there has arisen a new conception of the duty of government towards the social and moral well-being of the people who themselves constitute the nation.

In 1911 doubts were cast, unjustly so, on the loyalty of many Canadians over what was, after all, solely a domestic question. But the war settled all doubts as to the loyalty of the people of this Dominion. They proved themselves Canadian and British both in the East and the West. We have settled the loyalty cry forever, thereby rendering a great service to this country, and any man who tries to resurrect it will prove himself a traitor to Canada and a mighty poor politician.

For these reasons alone it is well within the bounds of truth to say that the approaching election day is a most momentous one in the history of the country, and probably the most important since the dawn of Confederation. It presents an opportunity for the exercise of good citizenship for which all Canadians have been eagerly waiting. Old hard and fast party lines have been shattered, whether for good or ill time alone can tell. New ideas in governmental forms and methods are prevalent; the franchise has been broadened to its utmost limits; new party leaders are directing affairs; a new national conscience has been awakened.

It is, therefore, behooves every man and every woman not only to exercise the right of their great national birthright—the marking of a free ballot—but to perform that act only after the most careful study of national problems and with intelligence and an eye single to the welfare of Canada. The popularity or personality of the individual candidate is one thing, but the voter cannot wisely be guided by that alone; he or she must take a bigger, broader look ahead and consider opposing policies in the light of present day conditions and needs and the prospective requirements of the Dominion. Old party enthusiasms have waned, but there has been a new, greater and better enthusiasm on election day—in enthusiasm for Canada itself.

V.C. Awarded to American Soldier

Unknown Warrior First Non-British to Receive Decoration

The Victoria Cross, Britain's most prized war decoration, never before placed on the breast of a man not a British subject, was bestowed upon the unknown American soldier buried in Washington.

Carl Beatty, admiral of the fleet, placed it on the flag, and saluted as he stepped back. Then, General the Earl of Cavan, representing the King in person, spoke briefly of the services this humble soldier had rendered not only to the United States, but the world, there in France.

Marshal Foch, of France, stepped forward, and with every show of feeling, placed above the quiet breast the Medaille Militaire and the Croix de Guerre. He cited this dead soldier for valor, speaking in French, saluted, and turned away to let General Diaz bring forward and pin in place Italy's gold medal for bravery.

New Canal Needed

Panama Will Soon Be Too Small for World's Commerce

It is proposed that the American continent should be cut through again. The present Panama Canal is used by an ever-increasing number of ships, and all the authorities are agreed that in fifteen years' time it will be quite inadequate for the world's commerce.

There is a possibility that, instead of making a second canal at Panama, the Nicaraguan route may be followed. This was the original plan of the Americans before they took over the French works at Panama, and as far back as 1829 a survey was undertaken there on behalf of a British company.

Owing to climatic causes ships would have to spend 42 hours more on the Nicaraguan route than by way of Panama, but against this the distance to San Francisco and New York ends is shorter than from the end of the Panama Canal.

KEEP HEALTHY DURING WINTER

Colds and Diseases May be Avoided if the Blood is Kept Pure

Do not let your blood get thin this winter. For people who have a tendency towards chronic colds, influenza, and other ailments, winter is a trying season. Lack of exercise and fresh air, and the many things that combine to lower the tone of the body and deplete the blood.

As soon as you notice the tired feeling, lack of appetite and shortness of breath that are warning symptoms of thin blood, take a short course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Just as you feel the color has entirely left your cheeks, until your lips are white and your eyes dim. It is so much easier to correct thinning of the blood in the earlier stages than later. This is well illustrated in the case of Mrs. E. Williams, 218 Lake, Ont., who says: "I take great pleasure in telling you how the benefit I have found in the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was in a general condition, and was very weak and run down. The least exertion would leave me breathless and it was with difficulty that I did household work. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after the use of four boxes I felt like a new person. In fact my system seemed filled with new energy and new life. I strongly recommend this medicine to all who feel weak and run down."

The purpose of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is to purify the blood. They do this one thing and they do it well. They are for this reason an invaluable remedy in disease arising from bad or deficient blood, as rheumatism, neuritis, after-effects of the grip or fevers. The pills are guaranteed to be free from opiates or any harmful drug and cannot injure the most delicate system.

You can procure Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or they will be sent you by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing direct to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Regina Man Thinks He Would Be Selfish Not To Relate Experience

"When a man has been benefited by a medicine like I have been by Tanlac, I think it would be selfish of him not to come out and tell what he knows."

Alfred G. Munro, 1261 McTavish street, Regina, Sask. "I haven't words to describe what I went through with an account of Indigestion. No matter how careful I was about what I ate or how little I ate, I was sure to be bloated up with gas afterwards. Sometimes my heart would be cut off so I could scarcely breathe. I actually got to the point where I dreaded to go to the table, and I shudder now when I think of how I suffered."

The Too-Anxious Mother A certain Irish Member of Parliament, popular and a bachelor, had been very polite to the daughter of the house where he was residing. When the time came for him to go, the tearful mamma called him in for a serious talk. "I'm sure I don't know what to say," she went on, "to comfort all around that you are to marry Letitia." "Just as she did," he replied, "I quietly advised the parliamentarian."

Thinks Swearing All Right

Yes, providing the provocation merits the offence of Jones stepping on Smith's toe corners. "You better use Tanlac," said Corn Extruder, "or it will lift out corns in a hurry. No corn can last if 'Putnam's' is applied. Refuse a substitute, 25c every where."

Long Life Secret

Psychology and medicine was given as the secret of longevity by Dr. A. H. Warner, of New York, in an address to the Allied Medical Association of America. Because the Bible says that a life shall be three score years and ten people expect to die when they reach that age, declared Dr. Warner. Given a sound constitution and a clean record, there is no reason why a man or woman should not reach 100 years. It is simply a matter of psychology and good living.

TO WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

This Woman's Letter Tells You How To Pass The Crisis Safely.

Lascelles, P.Q.—"During the Change of Life I felt so weak and run down I could hardly do my work. The perspiration would pour over my face so that I couldn't see what I was doing. I live on a farm so there is lots to do, but many who felt as I did would have been in bed. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it did me a world of good. I tried other remedies but Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound did them all, and I tell every one I know how much good it has done me." Mrs. DUNCAN BROWN, Lascelles, Prov. Quebec.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ear, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness should be heeded by middle-aged women, and let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carry them safely through this crisis. It is Dr. Mrs. Brown's.

You are invited to write for free advice

No other medicine has so successfully relieved women's suffering as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Women may receive free and helpful advice by writing the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

ALBERTA TEACHERS AND CAN. ADIAN BOOK WEEK

During the week November 10-26 throughout Canada, schools literary societies, patriotic organizations and all good citizens are invited to consider the claims of Canadian literature. A reprint of an article giving an outline of the development of Canadian literature by Miss Marion Lockhart is being sent through the mails to teachers and others interested. It is hoped that teachers will make use of the material contained in this article for a series of talks to their pupils during the week.

The associated publishers in Canada have decided to offer 500 Canadian book prizes for school essays on Canadian literature. Teachers who get essays on this subject are asked to send them when they consider the best to Findlay I. Weaver, Executive Secretary, Canadian Authors Week Committee, 454 Adelaide Street, West, Toronto. The 500 best essays will be selected by a committee nominated by the Canadian Authors Association.

When the essays are forwarded for competition, particulars as to the age of the pupil should be attached as this information will be taken into account in awarding the prizes.

December 31st, 1921, is the closing date for receiving essays. Alberta has a large number of men and women who have attained fame in the field of literature. Doubtless this essay competition will show that amongst the boys and girls in the public and high schools there is talent which later will help us to hold our place as a literary people.

Compliments Agricultural Society

Secretary Geo. Wrigglesworth, of the Agricultural Society has received the following report in reference to the recent Fair. It requires no comment except that it should be an encouragement to the Society to carry on and make next year's exhibition a better success than ever.

DIDSBURY.—Very good fair, more successful than in former years. Good turn out of all kinds of work, of excellent quality. Keen competition in all classes. Short-horn cattle commanded the most interest. The fair is doing good work and well supported by the leading farmers in the district. Classification and management good.

RE SEED OATS

The Department of Agriculture, Edmonton, has received some inquiries for seed oats, both from Canadian and American seed houses, and no doubt will receive many more such inquiries before spring. The request no doubt will be for white oats and for such varieties as Banner, Victor, Abundance and Gold Star, of good, clean, bright heavy straw and in ear lots only. Oats that contain more than one wild oat per pound will not likely be considered at all and they must also be reasonably free from other grains or foreign matter.

Those who have seed oats for sale of the above kinds should get in touch with the Department and they will co-operate with the farmer in disposing of same.

The Homesteaders

The boy stood helplessly in this confusion. He had always thought of difficulties arising between people, between neighbours, friends, or members of a family because one party was right and the other wrong. It was his first experience of three far more strategic quarrels where both parties are right, or seem to be right. He knew something of the depth of the nature of his parents, and he knew that beneath an unobtrusive exterior they cherished in secret a love proportionate to the strength of their characters. But the long course down which they had walked together seemed now to be separating, though neither will nor power of their own. It was as though straight, parallel lines suddenly turned apart, and neither lost its straightness in the turning.

So he comforted his mother with such words as he could. "I wish my father forbore laying any of the blame on those shoulders, and to blame his mother was undignified, and with unconscious wisdom he spoke not of blame at all. Presently it occurred to him to suggest that his mother's departure as temporary only, and with joy he found that she readily accepted the notion.

"Of course, while we are away, why shouldn't you have a visit?" he said. "Here you have been climbing down to this farm ever since I can remember."

Liver Pains

Pains under the shoulder blades tell of liver derangements. Other indications are yellow complexion, indigestion, constipation, biliousness and bilious headaches.

The quickest way to arouse the liver to healthful action is by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Continued use will insure lasting relief, correct the whole digestive system and purify the blood.

Mrs. Wm. Bates, Hamsore, Ont., writes:

"For some time I suffered from liver trouble. There was back, bearing down feeling in my back which I could not get rid of. Some one advised me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and found them excellent. The dragging feeling in my back disappeared, and I felt much refreshed. Generally, I have great confidence in Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and always keep them on hand for general use."

her, and before. We can easily enough arrange about the car and bill can board with one of the neighbours, or batch, and you can just have a good trip and a good rest, and nobody need it more. And then, when I get settled on my own homestead, you'll come and keep house for me, won't you?"

"You're sure you'll want me?" she asked, greatly comforted by his mood. "Perhaps you'll be getting your own housekeeper, too!"

"Not while I can have you," he answered. "You'll promise, won't you? Nothing that has happened, or can happen, will keep me from making my home yours, will it?"

When Dad got settled again, and all these worries of his mind, then (things) be different, and you'll come, even if I have to."

"Yes, I'll come, even if I have to, if you ask me," she promised.

Harris did not come back that night. A bill had come up, and he accepted the excuse to sleep at Riley's.

The truth was, he feared for his reputation if it should be attacked by his wife and son. Surrender now would be mere weakness, and weakness was disgrace, and yet he feared for himself if he put to the test again.

So he stayed at Riley's, and the two farmers went on with the work of their farms. It had been decided that they were to leave Harris in the next morning to go to his new home.

He knew that his wife was going on a visit, and that arrangements would have to be made for the care of the farm. He carefully concealed the fact that Mary was leaving against his will, or a result of any difference.

Such an admission would have damaged him in the estimation of Riley, who would have put it down to weakness. In little else could no insubordinating would be tolerated from man or beast, but least of all from a wife. He would have found ready means to suppress any such confounding suggestion.

Riley took the suggestion of a few days' delay with poor grace.

"Yes, an while you're chasing up an' down, or a house, or the Yanks, keep 'em all the homesteads. They're comin' in right now by the railroad, and they'll have 'em all in a week. We'll monkey round here till the summer's over, an' then go an' get a sand farm, or something like that. Confound your wife do her 'sides' no other time."

"I'll tell you, Riley," said Harris, who had no desire to pursue a topic which might lead him into deep water, "you go ahead and get the tax of the land, and I'll follow you within a week. I'll do that, for sure, and I'll stand up to your expense for going ahead, seen' you will be kind o' representin' me."

The last touch was a stroke of diplomacy. The suggestion that Harris should go to the land office was a stroke of genius. Riley had no objection to it, and he agreed to go on the date originally named, and get the tax rolled "a beile on the easy money," while Harris completed his arrangements at home.

He was to get "a beile on the easy money" in a manner which Harris little suspected.

When Harris returned home the next forenoon he found that Mary had been left for him. He sat down and tried to think, but the house was very quiet, and the silence oppressed him. He could not get the thought of his wife's departure out of his mind.

China Wants Chance To Play Her Part In World Advancement

Washington.—Preservation of "territorial integrity and political and administrative independence" together with preservation of the open-door policy and a prohibition against secret treaties in the Far East were included in the Chinese proposals at the Armament Conference on Far Eastern questions.

China in return would agree "not to alienate or lease any portion of her territory" for any foreign power, and all special rights, privileges, immunities or commitments, now held in China by foreign powers are to be carefully re-examined.

All existing limitations upon China's political jurisdiction and administration, the freedom of action, would be removed and provision made for future conferences from time to time for international discussion of the Far Eastern situation.

The Chinese proposals provide for full respect for China's rights as a neutral in all future wars to which the nation is not a party and for peaceful settlement of international disputes in the Pacific and the Far East.

Dr. Wellington Koo, who presented the Chinese proposals, said they were made in the interest of all powers involved in the Far East as well as of China, and if adopted would pave the way toward solving some of the perplexing problems in trying a firmer foundation of the Pacific and Far East.

China is anxious to play her part, not only in maintaining peace, but in promoting the material advancements and the cultural development of all the nations. She wishes to make her vast natural resources available to all peoples who need them, and in return to receive the benefits of free and equal intercourse from all nations. In order that she may do this, it is necessary that she should have every possible opportunity to develop her political institutions in accordance with the spirit and needs of her own people. China is contending with certain difficult problems which necessarily arise when any country makes a radical change in her form of government.

These problems she will be able to solve if given the opportunity to do so. This means not only that she should be free from danger of threat of foreign aggression but so far as circumstances will possibly permit, she be relieved from limitations which now deprive her of autonomous administrative action and prevent her from securing adequate public revenues.

Increase in Value of Building Permits

Total of Fifty-Fix Canadian Cities Shows Gain

Ottawa.—The total value of building permits in 54 Canadian cities during September was $3,085,157 as compared with $2,651,685 in August, and with $2,157,181 in September of last year.

Nova Scotia, Quebec, Ontario, Alberta and British Columbia registered gains over the preceding month, while New Brunswick, Manitoba and Saskatchewan reported decreases.

Rebels Attack British

One Officer and Three Men Killed by Moplahs

London.—A Reuters cable from Delhi, India, says a company of the Glukhka Rifles Regiment, holding the Panditpur post, had a sharp engagement with 2,000 Moplah rebels, who attacked vigorously. Two-thirds of the rebels were killed, while one British officer and three men were killed and 34 men wounded. One gun and a number of knives were captured. The record of other operations also discloses the use of artillery by the rebels.

Germany Able to Pay

Berlin.—The report that Germany had notified the allies that she will be unable to meet the next reparations installment is emphatically denied in official German quarters. A similar denial is made in extensive diplomatic circles which are in close touch with the negotiations now proceeding with the reparations commission.

Factory Explosion Kills Twelve

Accident in Prussia Forty Miles North of Oppau

Mayence.—Twelve people have been killed and 60 injured in an explosion in a factory at Dornheim, a short distance from Wiesbaden, Prussia. The damage to the factory is estimated at 1,000 marks.

General Desoutre, commander of the French troops in that district, visited the injured and his men assisted in the rescue work. Steps are being taken by the French to relieve the distress of the survivors. Dornheim is 10 miles north of Oppau, where an explosion in a plant on September 21 killed 120 persons, injured about 4,000 others and laid in waste the entire factory and the village at Oppau.

Britain Denies Soviet Charge

Says Evidence of Bolshevik Propaganda Not Based on Forgeries

London.—The British Government, it was announced, has handed the Soviet Government at Moscow a firmly worded note absolutely denying the allegations of Foreign Minister Litvinov that the British evidence of hostile Bolshevik propaganda in Central Asia and Afghanistan was founded on forged documents, German or otherwise. The note declares that the Soviet reply of Sept. 26 to the former note of Lord Curzon, the British foreign minister, apart from the allegations now denied by Lord Curzon, contained chiefly of quibbles regarding positions held by officials and that no attempt was made to answer the very serious charges of Russian hostile propaganda in Persia or Central Asia.

Cattle Shipped From Montreal

Big Revival of Export Trade Is Looked For

Montreal.—A big revival of the Canadian export cattle trade to Great Britain is now to be regarded as certain as far as Montreal port is concerned. Up to date, thirty thousand head of Canadian cattle have been shipped to Britain during the past six months, and thirty-seven ships still to be loaded, the thirty-five thousand mark may be reached before the season closes.

Believes No Danger Of Indian Revolution

Delroit, Mich.—Belief that there is no foundation for rumors of an impending revolution in India was expressed by Bishop H. L. Smith, of India, one of the speakers of the National Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Lack of friendship between the Mohammedans and Hindus would tend to prevent such a movement, he said. Bishop Smith declared British control of India must be continued, "If anarchy is to be averted."

British Press Doubts Wisdom Of Proposals Made By Balfour

London.—The modification to the United States disarmament proposals suggested before the conference at Washington by Arthur J. Balfour, head of the British delegation, have met with a varied reception at the hands of the press. The Westminster Gazette says that his statement gives cause for the very gravest misgivings and disappointment, and proceeds to note in particular his suggestion that the programme of battleships replacement be carried on from year to year to save armament waste from total destruction.

"The suggested reservation," it says, "amounts to a proposal that we keep alive not only the vested interest of war but the whole spirit and tradition of naval competition as a sacred flame ready to burst into full blaze the moment the holiday is over."

The Daily News says regarding the suggestion that replacement be permitted continuously on a fixed scale: "This seems a dangerous breach of the whole conception of a naval holiday, which might well prove disastrous to the U.S. plan." It believes that the British public would support an absolute embargo on submarines.

The most unsympathetic of the morning papers is the Morning Post, which dwells on Great Britain's exceptional position in the need to protect all lines of communication. Britain and her Dominions, it says, must be able to help one another across the oceans unhindered.

The Daily Mail declares that there is everything to be said for Mr. Balfour's suggestions as submarine warfare is most dangerous.

The London Times quoted the Cape Town Times as saying that Secretary Hughes' proposal for a naval holiday marked the most remarkable event since the outbreak of the war.

Bandit Identified By Finger Prints

Believed Responsible For Mail Car Robbery Near Moose Jaw

Phoenix, Ariz.—A bandit captured here at the Santa Fe station, following an attempt to rob a mail car, was identified by finger prints as Roy Gardner, who recently escaped from the federal penitentiary at McNeil's Island.

According to the police, Gardner admitted his identity.

Whimpee.—Roy Gardner, escaped convict from McNeil's Island penitentiary, reported arrested at Phoenix, Ariz., was credited by railway police with having been responsible for the robbery of an express car on the Canadian Pacific Railway near Moose Jaw on October 13, getting away with $5,000. On September 22 the Canadian National Railway express was held up at Tonkin, Ariz., several registered packages being stolen. Descriptions of Gardner, received from the Washington penitentiary, tallied with those of the bandit in both cases.

Moose Jaw.—Canadian Pacific Investigation shows when and how that Roy Gardner had been arrested, declared they were still convinced that Gardner robbed train No. 4 on the morning of October 13. It was stated Gardner would, not likely be brought back to Moose Jaw for trial, as he already had a 10-year sentence ahead of him in the United States.

Filipino Drowned in Manila Bay

Manila.—Fifty-eight Filipinos, many of them women and children, were drowned at the entrance to Manila Bay, when the inter-island steamer Maria Luisa foundered in a heavy sea. Seventy-two others were picked up by a Japanese steamer.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Rob Liquor Store and Escape Grand Jurors, R.C.—Robert Campbell, government liquor store vendor here, was held up and robbed of $200 by two armed men. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 23rd.

Objects to Report

Editor Didsbury Pioneer:

In your paper of November 16th, the people of Rugby were surprised to see a paragraph, suggesting that they did not give the Bennett speakers British fair play on November 12th. The truth is Mr. Bennett's agents asked to hold a meeting in Rugby school house, on November 11th, and they were told they could have the school house any night except Monday or Friday, that Mr. Shaw was going to speak on Wednesday evening, but then they were invited to have a joint meeting with him, which however did not materialize and this as too bad for there was a good crowd out that evening. They made out their pamphlets for Saturday night, which were profusely distributed, both in the district and at Mr. Shaw's meeting, and if Mr. Patterson did get a good meeting, it was not because it was not well advertised.

We would like you to tell us, Mr. Editor, in your next issue, who your correspondent was, regarding this also, who "kindly" telephoned around, for no one had authority to do the latter, and some one took it too much on him self to write you the former, but to turn it back, "it is a good sample of old political stuff", possibly on December 6th, they may get a much better "brand".

Thanking you Mr. Editor,

Jas. Hessegood.

[Editor's Note—It will be noticed in the paragraph referred to above that neither the people of Rugby, the School Trustees or the Executive of the U. P. A. in that district were accused. The word "somebody" meaning some individual was used.]

To the Editor,

Dear Sir:—

Could any of your readers enlighten me as to the meaning of "Antenore" and "Demerney" and their application to Canadian

I've heard it said that Mr. H. W. Wood is liable to develop into a "boss", exercising a one man control in Alberta politics, is there any truth in this statement?

Yours respectfully,
T. R. H. Macdonald,
